PUBLISHER'S LETTER

Dear Subscriber,
Outdoor living is high on the agenda this month with Gaze Burvill's 'A la Carte Grill Station' and full-blown landscaping from Modular Garden. That is not forgetting the opportunity for exotic safaris and luxury resorts, should the British summer disappoint. Finally, when it's time for a break in the shade, eporta.com is the must-visit website for professionals in the interiors industry. Happy browsing!

1 Finolhu resort, Maldives

The ultimate island experience for chic couples, families and groups of friends alike, the Finolhu resort recalls the heady allure of vintage beach vacations. With classic design, retro touches, Instagram-worthy interiors, and a laid-back beach club ambiance that brings you the best DJs, live acts and most fabulous parties in the Maldives, Finolhu is a true burst of fun for beach dwellers. finolhu.mv; +960 660 6444

2 Glyndebourne Festival 2016

Festival season at Glyndebourne is well under way so why not bring some of the magic into your home from the Glyndebourne Shop. Inspired by the excellence on stage and the beauty in the surroundings the shop offers a wide range of womenswear, menswear, gifts and home accessories. To introduce House & Garden readers to the shop, Glyndebourne is offering an exclusive 20% off purchases from its online store. Simply visit glyndebourneshop.com and enter 'HG2016' in the coupon code section at the checkout. For terms and conditions visit glyndebourneshop.com. Offer runs from July 4 - 31. Exclusions apply.

3 A la carte made easy by Gaze Burvill

To help you make the most of your garden this summer, Gaze Burvill have launched the new 'A la Carte Grill Station'. Oak cabinetry, craftsmanship by artisans in Hampshire, a professional quality Wolf Grill and adjustable feet make this the perfect tool for a great al fresco lunch. 'A la Carte' is available in either a 'New England' finish, as seen here, or in natural fumed oak. gazeburvill.com; 01420 588444
